

Carnegie and Kate Greenaway

Saturday 16 June 2018

Twitter Programme

10.00 - 10.45am Past and Present Overseas

An opportunity to discuss shortlisted book 'Beyond the Bright Sea' (TBC) and 'Saint Death' with authors Lauren Wolk (TBC) and Marcus Sedgwick.

11.00-11.45am Picture Book Partnerships

Author Nicola Davies and illustrator Petr Horacek will discuss the partnership and collaboration behind picture books including 'A First Book of Animal'.

12.00-12.45pm Quiz Part One

Pit your wit, knowledge and skills in part one of our special book quiz which will focus on book related knowledge for 2017/18.

1.00-1.45pm Quiz Part Two

Pit your wits, knowledge and skills in part two of our special book quiz which will focus on Carnegie and Kate Greenaway trivia from the past!

2.00-2.45pm Real Life Reflections

How does real life influence the fiction that is written for children and young people? A discussion with Will Hill and Geraldine McCaughrean, authors of 'After the Fire' and 'Where the World Ends'.

3.00-3.45pm Dark Designs

Illustration has the capacity to explore dark and emotionally sophisticated subjects. A discussion with Debi Gliori and Pam Smy, authors and illustrators of 'Night Shift' and 'Thornhill'.

4.00-4.45pm Beastly Books

Imaginary and real beasts inhabit several of this year's shortlisted books, join Lissa Evan, Anthony McGowan and Britta Teckentrup to discuss their work and animal appeal!

The CILIP Carnegie
& Kate Greenaway
Children's Book
Awards

Make your voice and views
part of the discussion #CKG18