

Shadowing Group Competition Record a short film about YOUR shadowing group!

26 March to 14 May 2018

Record your group... talk to camera... capture your discussions....give a sneak peek inside the books you are reading. Show us why you think your shadowing group is brilliant!

We're asking shadowing groups to get creative and record a short film about your shadowing group.

No edits please!

Your video must be simple and unedited - with no production enhancement. We want basic video clips of up to 180 seconds max, filmed directly on a phone, tablet or camera: no use of apps, post-production enhancements or editing please!

Prizes

Prizes are available to 2 groups for the main competition.

One Carnegie winner – must be at secondary school level

One Greenaway winner – must be at primary school level

The two winning groups will each win a set of tickets for 12 shadowers plus one or more group leaders to attend the 2018 Award ceremony on Monday 18 June in London. Please note that travel costs are not covered and would need to be covered by your organisation.

How to enter

Record a short video and upload this video to your shadowing group homepage: send us an email once it is live.

Uploading a video to your group homepage requires you to publish the video first to one of the following free video platforms: Vimeo, Youtube or Archive.org

Publishing and uploading your video: steps involved

Instructions are provided on the shadowing website, and below:

- 1) Film the video on your phone, tablet, camera or video recorder and save the file to your computer
- 2) If you don't already have one, create an account for free and login at Archive.org, Vimeo or YouTube
- 3) Follow the onscreen instructions to upload your video file to the platform

4) When the video is live on your chosen platform, copy (share) the video URL, then log in to edit your group homepage and paste the link in the box for 'Group video'.

6) Click Submit and test that the video plays in your page.

6) Email us with a link to your shadowing group home page containing the video

N.B. Please use only the video sites listed above as other sites might cause problems which mean users may not be able to access your group home page.

Enter by 5pm on Monday 14 May 2018

Judging

The CILIP Carnegie and Kate Greenaway Awards team will select the two best videos. The winning groups and runner up will be contacted during the last week of May and announced in our weekly email bulletin.

Terms and conditions

We can only consider entries from UK-based groups currently registered for the CILIP Carnegie and Kate Greenaway Awards shadowing scheme

Videos must be uploaded to group home page on the shadowing website

Only one entry per shadowing group per category is permitted

To be eligible, entries must be created according to the specific competition requirements stated on this page

By entering the competition, you give permission for your group to be named and your video to be shared, played and promoted by the competition promoter, CILIP and sponsors as part of their promotional activity, events and communications.

The judges' decisions are final and no correspondence will be entered into regarding the judges' decisions.

No cash alternatives to prizes are available

Prizes are not transferable

Only ticket holders can attend the awards ceremony

CILIP and our sponsors reserve the right to change the competition information or rules at any time

Your school or library organisation is responsible for the shadowing children's safety and wellbeing when attending the ceremony as well as travel arrangements.
